Carver-Price School News

Hello Readers! After such a pleasant Easter holiday, we are now ready for our last part of our school year. June does not seem far away.

For the program of events—this Friday night, April 15, a Television Set is the prize in the Auditorium with a Talent Show. This is sponsored by the Modernistic Club. The T. V. has been on exhibit in Poe Hardware.

We are sorry one of our students, Raymond Lawing is absent as a result of illness. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

On Monday night, April 25, a Career-Prize Teacher Talent Night will be the feature. This is an event we are anxiously looking forward to. Keep this date in mind.

There is little news, but after a week in school, we shall have more to report for next week.

Until next week, our thought:

"Some must delve when the dawn is nigh;
Some must toil when the noonday beams;
But when night comes, and the soft winds sigh,
Every man is a King of Dreams."
